Subject: RE: Cooley, Wilbert and Kandee v. Ameriquet

Earl,
Thanks for your email. I have forwarded the Ameriquet Notice of Deposition my client so they can identify who will serve as the corporate representative. I will work with them to get a date for the deposition and let you know as soon as possible. I do know that Kaye Houser and I both have a case that is currently set for trial on July 23rd, so that date is not available. But I will get alternative dates from the Ameriquet representative. I will also send you my objections to the Notice of Deposition topical areas and the Requests for Production.

April England Albright previously asked if we could conduct the deposition via teleconference. We are still willing to conduct the deposition by teleconference. However the corporate Ameriquet office is located in Orange, California, so if you would like to conduct the deposition in person, we will need to schedule the deposition for Orange, California.

Finally, I mentioned to April that I would like to discuss this case with her. I am not sure if I should direct any discussions of this case towards you or April. Please let me know, as I would like to have a discussion with you or April regarding this case.

Thanks,
Robin
